

Client: St Stephens Church

Location: High Street, Exeter

Brief: We were commissioned to design and produce a set of panels and a historical computer touchscreen for the Heritage centre within the newly refurbished community church, this included co-ordinating historical research by 6 groups of volunteers.

Our services included:

HLF funding advice & support

Copywriting

Historical research

Photo research

Volunteer co-ordination

Computer interactives

Production

Install

A simple and clear navigation is vitally important to successful user engagement

